LETTER FROM OUR CHAIR

Wingwaves,

Greetings fellow furries, both new and old... it's time to break out the bell-bottoms, polish those platform shoes, and catch the fever because IndyFurCon 2026 is ready to boogie... and go full Disco InFURno!

As we step into our 17th year, we are taking iFC to the absolute next level. For the very first time in our history, we are bringing the hustle right to the heart of downtown Indy! We have officially traded in the days of being surrounded by an endless parking lot with limited places to eat, and we are incredibly proud to call the stellar Hyatt Regency Indianapolis our new home.

This move is a massive milestone—the achievement of a dream! Our convention experience now extends far beyond the hotel doors, incorporating the vibrant energy of downtown Indy into your weekend. Just steps away from the con space, you will find tons of amazing restaurants, beautiful parks, and incredible sights... all yours to explore.

Inside our new venue, the vibes are just as groovy. The gorgeous central atrium provides a lovely, open social space to catch up with friends, while the onsite bar and restaurants mean you never have to wander far to keep the good times rolling.

We haven't just upgraded our venue; we've upgraded our event too, with improvements based directly on feedback received from you! From reg to swag, vendors, ops, DSS, and more, we are stepping it up. This includes launching our Quiet Room—a dedicated space designed to provide a restful retreat when you need a break from the groove (featuring emotional support chickens!). Plus, we are offering programming sure to keep you Cool Cats eggcited for more!

Our Far Out 2026 Guests of Honor are sure to help you light up the night with their star power, featuring Artemis Wishfoot and Duke Doggo, along with STABLERCAKE, our Artist of Honor.

We are here to create a space where all feel welcome to spread their feathers, shake their tails, and celebrate what it means to be uniquely you. We do this to honor the memory of staff, family, and friends taken far too soon. For the Indiana furry community, all of us here at #teamIFC put this event on for you.

Let's get down, let's boogie, and let's make this a chirpariffic weekend to remember!

Linnea, Samuel, and I proudly welcome you to the dance floor!

IndyFurCon 2026 is yours to explore!

Catch you on the flip side

IndyFurCon 2026

EXECUTIVE BOARD AND EVENT DIRECTORS

Storm Gryphon — IAAI Chief Executive Officer; iFC Chair - 17 Years

“By land, a talon-ted IT consultant; by sky, your ChairGryph keeping iFC in flight.”

North Kobold — IAAI Vice Chair; iFC Vice Chair - 3 Years

Fluffy kobold (and night owl). Talk to me about my latest hyperfixation, next hobby, or too-many furcons I road trip to in a 22’ Sprinter van!

Jake Bunny— IAAI Chief Operating Officer - 10 Years

Jake is a car and plane nerd, loves to meet new people. Newest hobby is pretending to know how to cook

Stormwolf — IAAI Board Member; iFC Director of Programming 10 Years

Just a silly blue wolf that loves to take photos, meet new people and go fast! Favorite things about staffing a con: seeing old friends, my con family and all our hard work enjoyed by you, the attendees!

Dr Snepper, Fizzician — iFC Chief of Staff - 5 Years

The original Dr Pepper Snepper

King Lylan — iFC Director of Operations - 4 Years

Schrödinger’s Lion. If you hear a yoyo, its probably me

Nizzbit — IAAI Treasurer; iFC Director of Finance - 9 Years

A video-gaming, loving tiger who enjoys staffing cons.

Nikki the Playful Kitten — iFC Director of Marketing - 13 Years

A siamese from the midwest with a passion for leadership, volunteering, and charity. I’m excited to put on an awesome con for all!

Vincentus — iFC Director of Registration - 10 Years

Fun loving bull that first attended iFC in 2015 and fell in love with the con. It became my home con and I’ve been attending ever since.

Devi Word — IAAI Chief Administrative Officer - 4 Years

Documentation Caracal who loves chilling with her kiddo, partners & friends. Often seen reading, gardening, cooking or dancing.

Hatter — iFC Director of Vendor Services - 10 Years

Local bear with many hats. I have a hat for every occasion because every occasion deserves a hat!

MASCOTS

Samuel L. Hatchet (He/Him)

Usually the embodiment of the “strong and silent” type, Samuel an American Bison (Bison bison) is known to keep everyone on their toes with his consistent stream of puns. Samuel has been with iFC since 2010, doing his best to be kind to everyone and keep an easy going presence. Especially since he knows his glorious horns and mane can appear intimidating at first. Every iFC he looks forward to seeing all of the first-time con attendees, and urges everyone to try to go to at least one meet up.

Linnea Sonnet (She/Her)

Linnea is a northern cardinal (Cardinalis cardinalis). She is a sassy, fun-loving bird that loves to be in the spotlight, and she is honored that she is able to continue to be a part of IndyFurCon. Her favorite part of iFC is the photography backdrop where she takes fun photos with friends. She also loves theming her outfits each year, and is ready for a groovy time at iFC 2026!

Oz (They/Them)

Oz (Draconis crochet) the Security Dragon DI is an emotional support dragon who has worked security at conventions across the Midwest and Northeast US since 2022. As an inducted and beanieed member of the Dorsai Irregulars, Oz can often be found giving snuggles and support to distressed con-goers and hanging out in the Security Office with fellow Safety Team Staff. Oz loves posting on Instagram and invites you to follow them @ozthesecuritydragon. They have many friends at iFC and wants everyone to have a safe and fun convention!

Francisco (He/They)

A mysterious coyote (Canis latrans) companion who Linnea and Samuel teamed up with to battle the portal creatures of 2025. Ever mischievous, he is stealthy and a master of disguise. He loved his time at iFC 2025 so much that he decided to return each year hence. His favorite part of the convention has been the dance comps and nightly DJ’s. Join him on the dance floor and bust a move!

Welcome to DSS!

This is our second year of working to make the IndyFurCon accessible to all our friends with disabilities. This year we are excited to offer our new Quiet Room!

If you need us, please check us out!

DSS is here, to help make your convention experience more enjoyable and less stressful. Please stop by our table located right across from the Registration entrance and see what we can do to help you!

What is the Quiet Room you ask?

The Quiet Room is a place for anyone who is feeling overwhelmed, overstimulated, to sit back, relax, recharge. There will be reduced noise levels, reduced lighting, and plenty of calming items to help you focus and get ready to head back out into the fray!

FEEDBACK

We Want Feedback! While the AV team does an amazing job preventing mic/speaker feedback, that’s not the kind we’re talking about. IndyFurCon can only grow and continue to thrive with feedback from YOU the ones who attend the convention. It doesn’t matter if it’s life-shattering level feedback, or the most minor detail you think we might not have noticed. Hit up feedback@indyfurcon.org or the QR code in this section and let us know how we did, where we can improve, and what you’d like to see moving forward!!!

Mission Statement

To provide expert medical and rehabilitation care for Central Indiana’s injured and orphaned wildlife.

Vision Statement

To provide expert veterinary medical and surgical care and rehabilitation for injured and orphaned wildlife in central Indiana, with the goal of eventual release into the wild. To help educate the public on how to minimize negative wildlife interactions, and on the value of rehabilitation and release. We also seek to educate the next generation of wildlife veterinarians, nurses and rehabilitators through externships, internships, didactic lectures and practical experiences.

History

For 30 years, the Avian and Exotic Animal Clinic has provided pro bono medical and surgical care for injured wildlife brought to the clinic by the public and licensed wildlife rehabilitators across Indiana. The Clinic worked with a network of volunteer rehabilitators to provide nursing care for sick and injured wildlife, and for orphans. However, with 2024 bringing close to 1200 wild animals for care, the demand outstripped capacity. ReWilding began as the combination of a designated wildlife hospital within Avian and Exotic Animal Clinic and one of the area’s strongest wildlife rehabilitation organizations, Hancock Wildlife Rescue & Rehabilitation.

Now, as Re-Wilding Indiana, we are powered by a unique partnership of wildlife veterinary staff, licensed rehabilitators, and volunteers that extends our reach throughout Central Indiana with a main rehabilitation center in Fortville, and additional licensed rehabilitators throughout central Indiana.

Our short term goals are to continue to fund the expert care we receive from our veterinary staff as well as provide nutritious species-specific food, enrichment and housing for our residents while they prepare for re-release. Our long-term goal is to establish a permanent free standing facility for triage and care of wildlife, public education, and expansion of our training and education programs.

Convention participation

We at ReWilding Indiana are so excited to have been chosen as IndyFurCon’s charity for 2026! We work hard to serve the animals that are a vital part of our local ecosystems, and we can’t wait to share our knowledge of these animals with a community that truly appreciates our native wildlife. We hope that we inspire you to learn more about the creatures that call Indiana home, and we are grateful for your support of our efforts to rescue and rehabilitate the animals that mean so much to us all!

VOLUNTEER

We are looking for some groovy furries willing to donate their time and skills. The dance party known as ‘IndyFurCon’ is seeking those willing participants to help assist various departments throughout the weekend. Help the event AND YOURSELF (to some swanky merchandise). Rewards increase as donated time increases! You can earn:

- 4 Hours – Volunteer Pin
- 8 Hours – Con Shirt
- 16 Hours – Free Attendance for 2027
- 24 Hours – Free Sponsorship for 2027

For more information on taking up this quest see the Volunteering Staff at Help Desk!

ARTIST OF HONOR

Stablercake

Stablercake (Magnus Hodgkin) is an Indianapolis-born printmaker creating artwork out of his home in south Broad Ripple and prints at the local Indy printmaking co-op studio Cat Head Press on 10th St making primarily silkscreen prints and patches. He enjoys making artwork of animals and creatures featuring bold lines and plenty of color and has been running his business full-time since 2018. His work has been featured in town via murals, gallery shows, and illustrations with clients like the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Condado Tacos, and the Broad Ripple Village Association among many more! While he enjoys doing freelance work, his heart will always be in the hands-on experience of printmaking his own work and making high quality merchandise that he's sort of a control freak about to make sure every customer receives a good product and experience.

GUESTS OF HONOR

Artemis Wishfoot

Hello, my name's Artemis, and for about 10 years now I've been a loud shouty blue dog in this fandom, who also seems to start every video this way. At least I'm consistent, right?

Originally from the UK (as if the accent wasn't a giveaway), where I've spent the majority of my furry fandom tenure, and having recently moved to the US to the great corn state of Iowa to be with my husband Duke Doggo. I've been attempting to be funny since Vine was a thing, but even the death of that beloved app couldn't shut me up, and I transitioned to YouTube, where I have been an almost tolerated figure for roughly 9 years.

I would like to think I'm more known for my takes on the fandom, life advice videos, analysis and commentary content, but I'm probably also known for being outspoken and salty about a lot of things, and of course for showing off the beans at any given moment, because who doesn't love a show off?

Whether it's fandom drama, world events, asexuality awareness, footcare, or just random skit videos, I'm still here doing my best to create the kind of stuff I like to see, and I'm pretty darn pleased that others seem to like it as well.

Outside of the fandom, well things are a bit more boring, though the grand adventure of moving to a whole new country has been fairly eventful. I am also diving into photography more and more where I can, mostly focussing on nature and the gorgeous variety of birds of prey the US has to offer. I'm a typical sci-fi nerd too, and love a good show or game with a deep lore that I can obsess over.

Duke Doggo

Duke Doggo, a Quad Cities native, is a fursuiter, who originally got his start in the anime and cosplay community. He enjoys Costume Design, Dancing, and going antiquing. For Duke, dancing is more than just a hobby for him, but also part of his work as a Michael Jackson Impersonator. Duke knows almost all the moves, and collects his memorabilia. If you see a Thriller jacket, it's probably him!

Duke married Artemis Wishfoot in September of 2024, and that relationship is something Duke cherishes. They love spending time together by catching up on new shows, or helping each other make new content for YouTube and Tiktok. Also Duke REALLY likes paws. I don't know where to go with that, but he thought you guys should know. Duke has been in the fandom for 7 years now, and is one of the best places he's ever been. Because of it, it's brought him his friend group, his husband, and his community. Duke's first ever fur con was IndyFurCon 2021, so for him, being able to come back to the con that helped him cement his love for the furry fandom is a full circle moment that he treasures dearly.

PROGRAMMING

The Werewolves are back and the town is in danger. Help us track down the murder puppies in another round of Werewolf

Saturday 9:30 PM - 11:30 PM - Studio Five - Talon Voidclaw

Minesweeper Battle RoyalG

This panel will briefly talk about the rules of Minesweeper and then I will pick 5 people from the audience to play Evil No Guess boards! There is a twist, I will be spinning a wheel which will give you a restraint on how to complete the board (e.g. no hints). The last one to complete the board loses and we will repeat the process until there is 1 person left! Who will be the winner?

Saturday 4:30 PM - 5:30 PM - Tabletop - Grass

Save the Last Dance13+

You and your friends have come to a small town where a large party is being thrown for the last day of summer. Bad news, some gang is looking to cause trouble by stealing some of the food and prizes for the dance. Help the town and save the last summer dance! (Must have a character or willing to use a pre-made character for After the bomb.)

Saturday 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM - Tabletop - Reidon Kuroi
